Commitment to Our Youth

Reggie Andrews Sr. was always committed to helping the youth around him. He always lent an ear when they needed to talk and gave them great real world advice. He would always shoot straight from the hip so you always knew what he was thinking and his advice was straight on.

Big Reg grew up in Concord, NC and was involved in the Boys and Girls Club during his childhood. He later attended Duke University and played football where he earned the nickname "Chief".

We support youth in the Concord and Durham, North Carolina areas. Helping to build a better foundation for youth is near and dear to our hearts, so we hope that you will find it in yours to become a part of Reggie's Legacy!
